III. SPECIAL ITEMS

A. Dr. Jack Daniels appeared before the Senate for an informal discussion/Q and A session on classroom management practices. Ultimately, President Sanchez does want to develop a classroom management policy, but today's purpose was a broad discussion.
(a summary of the discussion is available from the Academic Senate office.)

IV. OTHER MATTERS

A. President's Report
Bookstore Update

Interest based bargaining continues to decide who will manage the bookstore. One reason this fall was a problem is that they didn't take into account books that were sold during summer school, so they didn't reorder for fall. They are very much aware of the problems and are trying very hard to clear them up. Spring semester should be better. One solution may be outside management. Kim Metli will be here next week to answer questions.

Charlene McMahan will attend the next meeting of the Senate.

B. Committee Reports - none
United Faculty Update on Negotiations

Mel Amov reports that negotiations seem to be making progress.

V. Adjournment 12:20 M/S/U Dave Wertlieb, Judy Cook
