

'Picnic' Cast Chosen By Pennsbury Group

The cast for "Picnic," the William Inge drama which will be staged locally on April 14-15 by the Pennsbury Players, has been selected by Glenn Williams, coordinator of the players.

The cast includes Flo Owens, Thelma Foley; Madge Owens, Ann Bradley, Millie Owens, Claire Griffith; Helen Potts, Mary Jane Yeager; Rosemary Sydney, Audrey Harcar. John Barranger will play Hal Carter, Alan Oliver, Bomber, Dan Maxum as Howard Bevans, and Glenn Williams as Alan Seymour.

Alternating in performances as Erma Kronkite will be Emma Jane Fisher on April 14, and Louise Harrison, April 15, Mary Rose Shield will play the role of Christine Shoenwalder on April 14 and Mary Etter will play the same role April 15.

"Picnic" will be the Pennsbury Players' first dramatic presentation, and will be performed in the Charles H. Boehm High School Auditorium. Joseph Cagno will direct.

The Pennsbury Player are sponsored by the Pennsbury Education Association.

Mrs. Janet Williams is business manager for the group, with Mrs. Sally Maxsum, assistant director, and Peter Hadley in charge of set designs. Rehearsals will be held every Monday, Tuesday and Thursday, beginning at 8 p.m. in the Boehm auditorium.

All interested Pennsbury personnel are welcomed to join the group.