

School guidance meetings set

Californian News Service

ARVIN — Freshman students at Arvin High School will discuss future vocations at guidance section meetings when they return to school next week. Clare Larsen will speak on "Vocational Information" Monday and on Tuesday there will be class discussion on general job finding information.

The sophomores will discuss "How to Take a Test" in the classrooms Monday and Tuesday will take tests in the auditorium. The juniors will hear a talk on "Driver Safety" Monday in the boys' gym, with Harold Loumeau speaking and will discuss the subject Tuesday in class.