Creativity talk at library

The Palatine Public Library will sponsor a second lecture March 2 in its series of "Creative Imagination."

George Peranteau, an instructor in the experimental college of the College of DuPage, will speak on the topic, "Sufi Teaching Stories." Sufi is a Middle East story which combines, entertainment with a story about man's life and significance.

The session will be at 7:30 p.m. at the library, 500 N. Benton St.
