

Donnelly named new dean

By SHERRY L. THOMPSON

Staff Writer

Grossmont College President Ivan L. Jones recently announced the appointment of Dr. Mary Donnelly as Acting Dean of Communication & Fine Arts, and several other changes in student affairs.

The opening of the position of acting dean was result of the departure of Dr.

Elaine McLevie, who now holds the title of Vice President of Academic Affairs at the College of Marin, located in Kentfield, near San Francisco. Dr. McLevie was a member of the Grossmont College faculty first, then held the position of Dean of

see Dean page 2

Dean (Continued)

Communication & Fine Arts from the fall semester of 1982 through the spring semester of 1987.

Dr. Donnelly has been part of the Grossmont English department for 13 years, and the English Department Chair for the past two years.

report directly to the director of Student Affairs and will be responsible for Health Services, the Volunteer Program, and pro-

Acting Dean of Communication and Fine Arts Dr. Mary Donnelly.

motion and development of the Drug Abuse Program.

According to a memo sent out by President Jones, a normal search and screen procedure for a permanent dean will be held this semester, with an appointment being made effective at the beginning of the spring, 1988 semester.

In addition to this replacement, several changes have occurred in student affairs.

The Safety Office is now under the supervision of the District. Ron Knight of the Health and Safety Office will now

All reports concerning campus safety should be made through the appropriate supervisor to the Office of Director of Maintenance.

Food Services have been placed under the supervision of the Campus Business Office, EOPS has been placed under the supervision of the Director of Student Affairs, and the Evening Division has been placed under the supervision of the Administrative Dean of Instruction.