

Name Of Huron Girl To Be In Who's Who

VERMILLION, Dec. 11 — Nineteen State University seniors will receive nationwide recognition for achievements attained during their University careers, according to information received from Eleanor Norton, dean of women.

These students' names will appear in "Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities," which is now in its 13th year of publication. Names and biographies of a select group of college and university students throughout the nation appear each year in the journal.

Students are selected by an impartial board on the basis of character, scholarship, potentialities, leadership, participation in extra-curricular activities, society and religion.

The students who were honored by their selection to Who's Who are as follows: Doris Gross, Woonsocket; Maxine Edwards and Roderick Kreger, Watertown; Patricia Pearson and Norma Johnson, Webster; Phyllis Huffman and Gerald Tiffany, Aberdeen; James Slack, Madison; Barbara Wangness, Garretson; Marlys Forstrom, Beresford; Sallianne Nissen, Reliance; Betty Carlson, Huron; Iris Smith, Lemmon; Robert Frankenfild, Vermillion; Edwin Parli-man and Bruce Jewell, Sioux Falls; Richard O. Baily and Earl Moe, Alexandria; and Robert Brainard, Long Branch, N.J.

Betty Carlson of Huron is vice-president of the Association of Women students, president of the Home Economics Club, president of Alpha Phi sorority, a member of the Lutheran Students Association, and a member of the Panhellenic Council.
