

Teach English in Chile

You possess the skill that can open doors to new cultures and experiences anywhere in the world. Our internationally-recognized 120-hour TEFL Certification course located in beautiful Santiago, Chile will provide you with the tools you need to work wherever you choose to go.

Teaching English is an excellent way to experience a variety of cultures, meet new people, and challenge yourself. Our staff is dedicated to providing the highest quality training possible, and because of this our certification is one of the most recognized in the world.

- Institutional member of the College of Teachers
- Assistance in obtaining university credit at select schools
- Six hours of observed teaching practice puts the skills you learn in class to practical use
- Contact with a large international network of schools
- Lifelong job assistance
- Trainers with collective experience in over 15 different countries

Av. Hernando de Aguirre 129
Providencia
Santiago, Chile

<http://www.tefl-academy.com>
Phone: +56-99-1698608
Email: info@tefl-academy.com

