Selected ASGC property shall be available for use by chartered campus clubs. No charge for use of such property shall be made. Charges shall be levied for all supplies related to damage of such equipment. The ASGC requires instruction/supervision of said equipment by a member of the student Board.

SECTION E. ATTENDANCE

1. Members of the Board shall attend, and be on time, for all regular and special meetings of the Board and be subject to disciplinary action upon the accumulation - or the equivalency of - three unexcused absences during a fall or spring semester.
2. The definition of absences, tardies and early departures shall be defined as follows:
 - a. Absences shall be defined as being present for less than seventy-five percent (75%) of any meeting or activity. If notification is given to the Director of Board Affairs three hours prior to a meeting or activity, the absence is excused; otherwise, the absence is unexcused.
 - b. Unexcused tardies or early departures shall be defined as being absent for up to twenty-five percent (25%) of any meeting or activity. Three (3) unexcused tardies/early departures equal one (1) unexcused absence.
3. Upon two (2) unexcused absences, the Executive Vice President shall issue a warning letter to the officer.
4. If there is any circumstance that a board member wishes to be considered for an absence excuse, they must email the Board of Directors within two weeks after the absence occurs.
5. A maximum of seven (7) absences may be excused for the current academic year.
 - a. If a member is appointed to the board of directors at any time during the spring semester, a maximum of three (3) absences may be excused.

6. Once an officer has accumulated three (3) unexcused absences, the Executive Vice President shall issue a warning letter directing the officer to appear before the Board to provide an explanation for the excessive absences. The Board shall determine whether the reasons for the absences are acceptable or unacceptable. The Board will then do the following:
 - a. If the Board believes the reasons are valid, the Board will give advice to the officer to help them make meetings and activities.
 - b. If the Board determines the reasons are not valid, the Board shall recommend a course of action, up to and including impeachment.
7. Upon four (4) unexcused absences, the Executive Vice President shall issue a third warning letter to the officer. The following will then happen:
 - a. The officer will be directed to appear before the Board and will be given an opportunity to explain their unexcused absences.
 - b. After the officer has had an opportunity to make a presentation to the Board, the Board shall vote to determine if the officer shall be impeached.
 - c. Failure to appear at a mutually agreed time and place shall result in an automatic vote for impeachment unless an acceptable reason is given in advance.
8. Five (5) unexcused absences accumulated in a single semester shall result in an automatic vote for impeachment.

SECTION F. TERMS OF SERVICE

Comprehensive Office Training:

A training shall be scheduled between the ASGC Vice President, ASGC Board Members, and Executives for proper office training. The training shall be scheduled within the first three weeks of being seated to the board. If a training is not scheduled within the above stated time, one (1) unexcused absence will be given. Exclusions apply to newly elected positions for the start of the Fall semester.

Office Hours:

For office hours, please refer to Article II. Membership & Responsibility, Section A. Members. If any member of the Board of Directors is unable to fulfill their scheduled office hours for any given reason, it will be the Board Member responsibility to have that time period covered during their absence, and clearly communicate the absence with an ASGC Executive and Advisor. As stated in Article II. Membership & Responsibility, Section A. Members, President, Director of Student Legislation, Director of Campus Activities, Director of Publicity, and Director of Student Outreach can serve hours on behalf of the ASGC. "On Behalf" is defined as the total required hours divided by 2 and subtract 1. This final number of hours can be served on behalf of the ASGC outside of the office. However a different amount can be agreed upon by the board of directors with a simple majority vote.

Committees:

Each Board Member and Executive Officer shall serve on campus or district wide committees. The number of committees each Board Member and Executive Officer shall serve will be determined by the ASGC Advisor and ASGC President. The ASGC President may appoint a Board Member, Executive Officer and if needed ASGC Ambassador to a committee that will accommodate the Member's schedule. Failure to attend the meetings of the assigned committee may result in the removal from the Board of Directors of the ASGC.

Governing Board Attendance:

All ASGC Board Members and Executive Officers will be required to attend one (1) Governing Board meeting per fall and spring semesters and report content of the Governing Board meeting to the ASGC Board prior to the next Governing Board meeting. This requirement must be completed prior to the last ASGC Board meeting of each semester. Under extenuating circumstances, if there is a conflict with meeting the requirement, an alternative option will be provided pending approval of the ASGC President and ASGC Advisor.

1. Tabulation of votes shall take place within 48 hours after the closing of the balloting station(s) on the last day of elections.
2. The election ballots shall be tallied by a computer form of tabulation. The casting of ballots by those not officially enrolled as Grossmont College students is prohibited.
3. Official notice of the tabulations shall be certified by the signatures of the Associate Dean of Student Affairs and the Election Committee Chairperson. Official notification shall be posted in the Student Affairs office, the ASGC office and the Student Center by 10:00 AM on the first day of classes following the tabulation of ballots and shall remain posted for five school days.
4. A person shall be elected if they receive a plurality of 2 or more bona fide votes cast for that office.
5. In the event of a tie election for an executive position, there shall be a runoff election, and such election shall be held within two weeks of the official tabulations subject to the same rules and regulations governing regular elections.
6. In the event of a tie vote for a board position, the tie shall be broken by a vote of the newly seated board at their first regular meeting.
7. Write-in candidates are required to accumulate 2 or more votes to be considered for any candidacy. Eligibility for office will then be determined by the Student Affairs office prior to candidate's appointment to office.

SECTION J. PENALTIES FOR VIOLATION AND APPEAL PROCEDURES

1. Any complaint against a candidate must be filed with the Dean of Student Affairs prior to 12:00 noon on the day following the election.
2. Upon receiving any evidence of any infraction of the Election Code, allegedly committed by a candidate or candidates, the Dean of Student Affairs shall call the accused and any complainants and witnesses for a hearing within 24 hours (1 class days) of receiving the evidence. The accused shall be afforded due process. If the situation can be rectified, or if the accused is found to be not guilty, the candidate shall continue their campaign. If the candidate is found to be guilty and/or the situation cannot be rectified, the Election Committee shall order the candidate to cease all campaigning. Continued violations may eliminate a candidate from the election.
3. An election or the election of any ASGC officer may be appealed in writing to the Election Committee, stating the reason for the appeal within 24 hours after the tabulations are first posted.

ASGC Constitution excerpt:

ARTICLE VIII. BOARD DISCIPLINE, IMPEACHMENT & RECALL

SECTION A. Board Discipline

The Board may discipline an individual member of the Board for violation of the ASGC Constitution and Bylaws or District policy. The procedures for discipline may be found in the ASGC Bylaws.

SECTION B. Impeachment

The Board shall have the power to enact impeachment proceedings against any elected or appointed members of the ASGC with a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of the Board. The following actions shall be regarded as grounds for impeachment:

1. Failure to meet all qualifications, as dictated by the ASGC Constitution and Bylaws.
2. Failure and/or inability to perform duties as outlined in the ASGC Constitution and Bylaws.
3. Violation of the Oath of Office.

SECTION C. Recall

1. Any elected or appointed member may be the subject of a recall special election, and removed from office. This process requires a petition that has been signed by the number of signatures equal to the total amount of votes cast from the previous election plus one (1). The petitions must state specific charges and have signatures from currently enrolled students in Grossmont College and student identification numbers in order to be valid.

2. The following actions shall be regarded as grounds for a recall petition: a. Failure to meet all qualifications, as dictated by the Constitution. b. Failure and/or inability to perform duties as outlined in the ASGC Constitution and Bylaws. c. Violation of the oath of office.

3. The Advisor and the Executive Vice President have the responsibility to verify and confirm the petitions and its charges. Only verifiable charges can be used as grounds to initiate a recall election. A recall election shall be organized by an election committee within thirty (30) instructional days. A majority of two-thirds (2/3) votes cast in the affirmative shall be required to recall and remove any elected or appointed members.
