

Grossmont College Where Dreams Come True Defensive Line

2006-2007

Matt Moss Story 6'5" - 265 - DL West Hills HS

Matt Moss, DE, was offered trips to Big-12 and PAC-10 schools. However, he stuck to his verbal commitment to Texas A&M, who had made him an offer the previous spring. Matt began the season at Texas A & M as a defensive end, but ended up starting as a defensive tackle. He could be seen on national TV having a great game against Univ of Texas. He has a year left.

Grossmont College Where Dreams Come True

DEFENSIVE LINE

The Jason Holmes Story

Jason Holmes (Patrick Henry HS)
A qualifier, Jason was noticed by the prestigious Miami of Ohio coaches after just one year at Grossmont in 1995. An outstanding scholar athlete, he went to this MAC school and became an "all conference defensive end." He finished with an advanced degree.

The Mike Robertson Story

Mike Robertson (Kennedy HS) left a scholarship from a DIAA college because he wanted to "upgrade." He did just that. After one year with the Griffs, he joined a PAC 10 school, Arizona, and became a starting defensive end for them. Mike was just 6'2" - 238 lbs. He's shown causing a key fumble in the 1998 Holiday Bowl.

The Brian Stanbra Story

The Brian Stanbra Story From U. of San Diego HS

Brian hit the headlines of the SD Union in 2006 as one of San Diego State's probable starters that fall. He had been given a scholarship there after helping the Griffs win the State championship in 2005. He made up for his smaller size (6'3" - 232) because he was an exceptionally quick and smart defensive end. He was somewhat disappointed in his senior year but he's near graduating and had four exciting years as a Griff and then an Aztec.

2008 Starting D-Ends Leaving

Chad O'Donnell
Starting Left End
Christian HS

A 3rd Team D-Lineman in '07, he worked hard off season and became a starter in '08. He was named GC's Best D-Lineman. He played like a DI player, but at 6'2" - 235, he may end up DIAA. He's already had offers.

Terrance Joyner
Starting Right End
Roosevelt HS

He came in '07 and didn't play much, but ended up as a starting D-End in '08. He was named the Griffin's Most Improved Player and at 6'4" - 280, he's drawing attention from DI and DIAA schools.

If you can dream it, you can do it!
