Budget Update	Sara provided an updated budget of balance/expenditures. The total of the grant requests received outweighs the remaining budget allotment. To provide the committee with a clear understanding of where the budget stands, Sara contacted each of the Fall 2011 grant recipients to determine if all expenditures have been submitted. The budget (handout) reflects all Fall 2011 grants. Sara discussed the state budget is forcing the campus community to look at ways to cut back. She has been in communication with Tim Flood to ensure that grant recipients are still able to program as awarded and to determine the committee's next steps. The committee was advised by Mr. Flood to review the grants received by our February 14 deadline and forward those approved for review by President's Cabinet.

Committee Voting Process	Discussion of online voting challenges. Members shared a discomfort with the possibility of statements having double-meanings when shared electronically. Members stated that the in-depth discussion that occurs in person was incredibly valuable.	Committee will no longer conduct online voting. Those that cannot make the in-person meeting may submit their vote electronically to Sara.
Budget Update	Alba provided an overview of the budget.
Pending Grant Proposals	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Black History Month – Committee reviewed grant. Amount requested line is $3,100, but detailed budget line is $3,200. Committee agreed to vote on full detailed amount of $3,200. Approved (9-1-0). 2. A Celebration of Chinese New Year - Committee reviewed grant. Committee suggested publicizing the event more broadly to faculty, advertising via Griffin Radio, sending an advance save the date campus-wide so that faculty may incorporate the event into their classes. Approved Unanimously. 	Send grant approval/denial letters.

Spring Planning	Committee discussed ways in which to promote and enhance campus understanding of what WACC is and does. Ideas included frequent communication with DEI Taskforce, campus-wide emails with requests for additional grant requests, accepting donations via the Foundation Website, provide greater understanding of what can and cannot be funded (where the money comes from), creation of a post-event satisfaction survey, improve the denial and approval letters, and creation of a sample detailed request.	Revisit these items in the spring.
