Ground Rules:

- We will stick to the time allotted for each issue/presentation;
- We will allow the person giving a presentation to finish before asking questions; and
- If we have further questions or comments and we run out of time with regard to a particular issue, we will choose from the following options: continue with the current presentation/discussion if the majority approves; address the issue in an e-mail forum following the meeting; address the issue at the next available CCC meeting; forward the issue to Academic Senate for further discussion; or schedule a special 4th Monday CCC meeting to continue discussion.
