

Latest News - Updated 9:00 pm, October 21st, 2007

Wildfires burning across S. Calif.

JOHN GASTALDO / Union-Tribune 8,000 acres burn near Ramona

A firefighter tries to get a handle on a wildfire that has burned more than 8,000 acres between Ramona and Santa Ysabel as it moves northwest toward Lake Sutherland. "It's just like the Cedar Fire. It was just like the Cedar Fire right off the bat," one official says.

- Witch Fire photo gallery | Harris Fire photo gallery
- Video | Share your photos, video | Cobertura en español

1 dead, 17 hurt as fire roars in Potrero area

A wildfire east of San Diego turns deadly as it burns 14,000 acres between Tecate and Harris Ranch Road. One person is dead and at four firefighters are among the 17 injured.

1,500 flee Malibu fire; homes burn

A wildfire driven by Santa Ana winds forces the evacuation of hundreds of homes in the Malibu Hills. Flames destroy a church and several homes, including a landmark castle.

0000Z SURFACE ANALYSIS
 DATE: MON OCT 22 2007
 ISSUED: 0139Z MON OCT 22 2007
 BY: HPC ANALYST KONG
 COLLABORATING CENTERS: HPC, TPC, OPC